FLOOR DEBATE

April 16, 2002 LB 19, 824

what's in the statute, or the proposed language that I'm offering. So what is the question you're trying to get an answer to from me?

SENATOR FOLEY: Well, I'm just wondering why you would include marital status. You would allow for discrimination on marital status.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, did you hear my answer to that...

SENATOR FOLEY: I heard the answer.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...or you weren't paying attention to it?

SENATOR FOLEY: Yeah, I heard, I heard you, Senator. Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So now you know why I put it there, don't you?

SENATOR FOLEY: Not completely, but we can move on. I've got...I've got another question, if you don't mind.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Certainly not.

SENATOR FOLEY: I'm sure you remember earlier this year I offered LB 824 relating to fetal homicide and on both General File and Select File you offered amendments to that bill. The bill provided protection...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But not 20.

SENATOR FOLEY: Well, quite a few between the two rounds of debate, but I don't have the precise number.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How many did I offer? It's your bill. You're raising the issue. How many amendments did I offer to that bill?

SENATOR FOLEY: Well, I would take...take a guess. It was between 15 and 20, between the...
